Entertainment by Danny McMaster

When he was a little boy, his mum wanted him to grow up to be somebody. — He grew up to be everybody!

A seasoned world traveler, Danny, one of the world's best impressionists, is now back in his native Australia performing after working the length and breadth of the USA. Whether it was headlining the Hollywood Improv, Pasadena's "Ice House", the Las Vegas' Riviera Hotel or corporate gigs in California, Florida, Washington, New York or Pennsylvania, Danny's been doing it all. Now he's back home 'among the gum trees' domiciled in his hometown of the Gold Coast, ready to go.
